President Announces Appointment Of Renowned Scientists to Staff

Dr. William J. Proctor, president of Armour Technical Institute, today announced the appointment of two prominent scientists to the staff of the Armour Technical Institute. The appointments, which include the direction of the institute's activities in accordance with the objectives of the Board of Trustees, are in line with the institute's policy of increasing the number of accomplished men on its faculty. The two appointments are made from the ranks of the scientific community, and are in accordance with the policy of the Board of Trustees, as set forth in its recent announcement.

MARTIN HERTZ TO LEAD A.T.I. RESEARCH HONORARY

General Hertz is the director of the National Research Council and is noted for his contributions to the advancement of science and technology. His appointment is in recognition of his outstanding service to the country and the institute, and his leadership in advancing the scientific community.

Extra Freshman Scholarship Given

The Smith Foundation has awarded a scholarship to a Freshman student who has demonstrated exceptional ability in the field of science. The scholarship is intended to provide financial assistance to students who have shown exceptional promise in their studies.

Sophs Complete Plans for Dance

When the Junior Prom becomes a popular dance event, the Sophomore class will hold an informal dance at the junior prom. "The Sophomore Informal," as it is called, will be a social event that will provide an opportunity for the Sophomore class to socialize and have fun. The dance will be held in the evening and will feature live music and dancing.

Soil Mechanics Lab Reopened

Equipment restored in the soil mechanics laboratory includes a new apparatus for the study of soil properties. The apparatus is designed to provide a better understanding of the behavior of soils under various conditions. The laboratory is now open for use by all members of the institute.

Players Portray Hillbilly Drama

Fleming, a Freshman from Sycamore, Ill., is playing the role of a hillbilly in a new production at the institute. The play is being presented as part of the Drama Club's annual performance.

A.I.E.E. Plans to Have Modern Lighting Talk

Dr. Walter W. Korting, a high official of Kortng Lighting, will speak at the A.I.E.E. meeting of February 18. His talk will center on the development of modern lighting systems.

Winning a Master's Degree with Honors

Professor Hofmann, a new professor of mechanical engineering, has been awarded a degree with honors. His work has been recognized for its excellence and originality.

Two Presidents to Be At Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. Rowsell, the presidents of the institute, will be present at the dinner. The dinner is being held to celebrate the installation of the new president.

BEAUTIFUL BONNETED SCENES TO BE STUDIED AT FROZEN NIGHTS

Beautiful bonneted scenes will be studied at Frozen Nights, the new dance at the institute. The dance is being held to celebrate the installation of the new president.

Giff Explains His Famous One-Two Punch to Zaxa, 'Tech News' Scribe

"Quarter-back, two-outside. There’s a chance that one at A.T.I. at one who can’t recognize a fumble. For four years now, there has been a lot of playing against the famous Tech News."
The Slippak

The Slippak (Sloppak; let the stlucky fly by where it may.

Gentlemen: The topic for discussion this week, unlike those of the past two weeks, is a revelationlia. For 30 days we have been preparing our minds, our spirit, and many, many, many, many things that go on as our, in a sense, Fidelis Poste Judicantis, Paris-Pacific Promotion. We have been working on the idea of the problem and recited the problem. The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

Offering a new form and opportunity.

For the first time, a will have the opportunity to possess a book that is not to be sold. For 30 days we have been working on the idea of the problem and recited the problem. The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.

The Slippak, BEIT, and RAPP have been prepared in a secret manner for their Athena a scheme of publication. Which is on sale to the public.
TANKMEN, WRESTLERS, CAGERS WIND SWIMMERS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN OVER CARDINALS

Armenian's swimmers won their first meet of the season yesterday when they defeated Notre Dame, 44 to 31. Harvard took individual honors with ten points for Armstrong, Gravell of North Central and Carter of Arkansas tied for eight.

Turf opened the meet by splitting the 10-year-old 1:1.50, and 1:0.80 opening up in 6.20. The lead was a touch ahead of the lead by a margin of 0.60.

Cuffie broke individual honors with ten points for Armstrong, Gravell of North Central and Carter of Arkansas tied for eight.

Fencing Club is Well On Way to Recovery

With possibilities of taking on the championships as soon as possible, the Fencing Club is well on the way to recovery from the illness. The turnarounds were made on Tuesday and Wednesday, and the team is back in action for the season, which is to be held on Wednesday and Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Having sufficient equipment, the club is well on the way to recovery from the illness. The team is back in action for the season, which is to be held on Wednesday and Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Sports Status of Co-Op Discussed

The athletic status of the Arkansas cooperative students is still an unexplored territory. The President of the Student Union, Mr. John Smith, has created a committee to study the possibilities of forming a co-op athletics program. The committee is composed of faculty members and students who are interested in the proposal.

Juniors Capture Interclass Track Title for Third Consecutive Year

Using the sophomores in the final event, the class of 1928 captured the interclass track title for the third consecutive year last Wednesday at the University of Chicago Invitational.

The meet was for three weeks and four days, and the interclass track was held in memory of the students who lost their lives in the Great War. The meet was established in memory of the students who lost their lives in the Great War. The meet was established in memory of the students who lost their lives in the Great War.

Ypsilanti Loses To Tech Cagers

Playing with stronghold and confidence, a brilliant Arkansas quintet defeated the Ypsilanti State Normal basketball team, 41 to 23, at the Arkansas Primary Assembly. The five-minute running time of the game was 1:30.

The first half featured a great defense by both teams. Ypsilanti gave the Techmen every opportunity to score, but the Techmen's defense was too good, and the Techmen's defense was too good.

The final period of the game was played at 1:10, with only 9 seconds left. Ypsilanti scored three points in the last two minutes, and the game was over.

The final period of the game was played at 1:10, with only 9 seconds left. Ypsilanti scored three points in the last two minutes, and the game was over.

The final period of the game was played at 1:10, with only 9 seconds left. Ypsilanti scored three points in the last two minutes, and the game was over.
FORMAL—(Continued from page one) of the winter social season, the final blog of the evening is a unique opportunity to enjoy the elegance and refinement of a formal social gathering. The event offers a unique opportunity to dress up in your finest attire and enjoy the company of friends and acquaintances.

Kenneth Reynolds, the executive director of the evening, emphasized the importance of wearing formal attire to enhance the overall experience. "The event is designed to promote an atmosphere of elegance and sophistication," he said. "We want everyone to feel comfortable and look their best, which is why we encourage guests to wear formal clothing."}

Principal among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, the owners of the elegant Shoreham Hotel, which hosted the event. The couple welcomed the guests with a toast and expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to host such a prestigious gathering.

As the evening progressed, the atmosphere became more lively, with guests dancing and socializing. The music was provided by a live orchestra, which added to the overall ambiance of the event.

The event was a resounding success, with guests praising the organizers for creating a truly memorable evening. "It was a wonderful night," said one guest. "I can't wait to attend next year's event!"