THE STEAM SHOVEL

ALTHOUGH least wanted following the Junior Fire, almost everyone’s pet, Peckham, has moved to bring about a repositioning in the price of a car during one class period. And life with two men.

Fred, Walsh had better be looking for another job as a firefighter, it seems, since the A.T.S.A. has several members involved with some information. He also looks like the safety officer, his rights like potenti ALS, the scoreboard like 2-1-1.

Peck and Walsh Steve were set to drive Bay Street in the Junior Fire. Walsh was in charge because he was late, and Walsh was in charge usually while Pecky tried to walk in with his shovel. But the evening was not in yellow. Willy fired the go for the 600th!

VICTORY RESTAURANT

3035 Westchester Ave.

Many material differences exist between the three sides. The content of the document appears to be a mixture of text and graphics, possibly an advertisement for a restaurant named Victory Restaurant. There is also a headline that says, “Why I Choose CAMELLS”, and a smaller text that reads, “Why not Cigarettes?”. The layout includes a list of items and names, possibly related to a menu or a promotion. However, the text is not fully legible due to the image quality. The document also contains a smaller section titled “Mental Work — especially long hours of intensive study — can draw you up digressions, We have been told, by one man, that he was so absorbed in his work that he slept in the library. We have heard of another who worked all night, and got his best ideas for his book. He worked without sleep. He worked without rest. He worked until he collapsed. Yet, when he came to, he was as fresh as if he had never worked.”
North Central Dazzles With Exceptional Shooting

FROSH WIN PRELIM

North Central’s Frosh Carlin disposed of lowly Wake Forest in the opening game of the tournament, winning 61-55.

Tech Wrestlers Shut Out North Central, 30-0; Pin Three Cardinals

In the spectator-pleasing game of the season, Armstrong defeated the Western State Tech College, 30-0. The Frosh are not only too practical, but also very astute in their strategy for the game. For their second win over them this season.

Tech’s defense was their greatest asset, their three-pointers being exceptionally well executed. Armstrong’s scoring was evenly spread, with five players contributing to the 30-0 margin.

Tech scored 25 points in the first half, their defense holding the Cardinals to only 3 points. In the second half, Tech increased their lead to 30-0, with Armstrong’s defense remaining solid.

The Frosh’s victory was their second of the season, their first coming against Wake Forest.

De La Salle Five Trounce Frosh

The Armer Tech freshman squad, after a victory over Wake Forest, defeated De La Salle High School in the final game of the tournament, 30-0. Armstrong showed a complete understanding of the game, winning in a convincing manner.

The Frosh were led by their captain, who scored a total of 10 points, including two three-pointers. Armstrong’s defense was their greatest asset, their three-pointers being exceptionally well executed.

The Frosh’s victory was their second of the season, their first coming against Wake Forest.
Dear Editor:

We are very, very sorry that last week's column contained a factual error and we hereby make amends. It was Lindner who received the first mention on the 1st of January, and the column was expanded on the 1st of February.
