ALLISON FAINTS AS DANCE FUND IS "BORROWED"

"G"-Men Trace Thief Through Highballs

Last Friday evening under the very noses of security house detectives and members of the social committee, the dance committee of the Junior Woman's Club was robbed of the money which was to be used to pay the orchestra and hotel. While a short time later, however, the55 detective bureau located them and he was returned to the scene of his failure. When the thieves were caught, the whole club brought him in and was introduced condition which permitted him to be caught. Apparently the most serious result of this incident was the total collapse of Mr. Allison who suddenly and quietly surrendered, and with the aid of a gift of new cards and the presence of the money he was soon better.

However, the alarm put forth by the security house detectives in this incident in prime of this trying period, the president of the Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. and Mrs. Allison brought the matter to the attention of the mayor.
