Professor Spencer Is Co-Author of Book Concerning Blueprint Problems

The ITA will meet this Wednesday. The cause is to remind students that they are still waiting for the new quota, which was announced last week. The vote on this is still being held in the office of the vice-president of the ITA, an elections committee is still meeting with no result. The elections will be held on Monday, the 24th. The winner will then be announced in the school, and the results will be posted on the bulletin board. The election will be open to all students, regardless of their grades, but only those who have been active in the school will be eligible to vote. The winners will be announced after the ballots have been counted. The results will be posted on the bulletin board, and the winners will be notified by telephone. The winners will be asked to come to the office of the vice-president of the ITA to receive their prize.

`Bob` Kasnicka Elected to ITSA
And Honor Board by Senior Class

His recent election to the Honor Board and to the ITSA as the 4B representative, warrants Robert R. Kasnicka as "Man of the Week".

Although he is active in many fields of student endeavor, athletics is his predominate interest. This is reflected in the fact that he is a member of the National Track Team, a member of the ITSA Track Team, and the President of the Intramural Sports Council. In addition, he is a member of the National Science Foundation, a member of the National History Foundation, and a member of the National Social Science Foundation.

His initiation to the Honor Board was a result of his outstanding performance in both academic and athletic fields. He was one of the key players on the National Track Team, and his academic record is outstanding.

Techman Talking

By R. H. Spencer, Chairman of the TD Department

"Why did you come to ITSA?" was propounded to me by the interested student Techman Mike Smith. I replied, "I came to ITSA because I think it is a good thing to do."

I then proceeded to explain the advantages of ITSA, and how it can benefit students.

For instance, ITSA provides a wide range of educational and extracurricular activities, which can help students develop their skills and interests.

In addition, ITSA offers a variety of opportunities for students to socialize and make new friends. This can be especially important for students who are new to the area or who are far from home.

The ITSA community is also known for its strong sense of community and support. Students who are struggling with personal or academic issues can often find the help and guidance they need from their ITSA peers.

Finally, ITSA is a great place to network and build connections. Many ITSA students go on to successful careers in a variety of fields, and they often attribute their success to the opportunities they had at ITSA.

So, whether you are interested in academics, extracurricular activities, or simply making new friends, ITSA is the place to be. Come on down and check it out for yourself!"
LETTER OF THE WEEK: Womanaower Shortage

There were just last Wednesday, a bunch of lovely boys with the navy band to furnish this sweet rhythm, and only a few dancing due to the lack of dancers.

Could arrangements be made to

WOMEN ON STEAM

I fully agree with the opinion of Arnold Rosenbauer, whose comments on "Women on Steam" appeared in the Chicago Tribune, I prefer to go down the channel of steam.

Steamship has never used discretion in printing articles concerning current events, and as a result, things have not been as pleasant as they should have been.

Despite this, I believe that the women have been treated with respect and that all have had a pleasant time.

A/FRANK CHRYSTELL, Junior Aero.

The women were members of the crew, and I hope they had a good time.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The School for Safety Auditors, more commonly known as the "Explosive Safety Bureau," is one of the important activities which Illinois Institute of Technology is carrying on to help in the winning of the war.

Older students in the school, and those of all ages, are being prepared for work in a plant which is being built at the Chicago Bar.

Barber Poll

Well sir, it's amusing how some of my old customers when I have been away for a while and when I have commented on their hair. I've noticed one, a Mr. Joe, who has been coming in for about six months. Of course, I know he can't be a politician to give his name, so I'll call him Joe Barber.

Tech Shorts

It was with a great deal of satisfaction that I noticed the present appearance of the Frenchman on the dance floor. His elegance, combined with his good taste, made him a movable point of interest. The crowd, which had gathered around his chair, was so thick that I could hardly get through. However, I managed to find a place near him and began to chat with a few of the other guests. Among them were several prominent members of society, including a prominent politician and a famous actor. The conversation was light and pleasant, and we all enjoyed each other's company. The evening ended with a dance, which was attended by many of the city's elite. Overall, it was a memorable evening, one that I hope to repeat in the future.

A View of Lewis Maintenance Completes Years of Service, Retiring at 68

Thomas Alexander of the Lewis maintenance staff who has served Lewis since 1905, recently retired to lead a less strenuous life. Alexander has been with the company for many years, and during his tenure, he has contributed greatly to the smooth operation of the plant. He took over the task of operating the maintenance department, overseeing the repair and maintenance of all equipment. Alexander's expertise in electrical work and his ability to troubleshoot problems quickly and efficiently were highly valued by the company. He is also known for his kind nature and his willingness to help others. Alexander's retirement is a loss to the company, but we wish him all the best in his new life.
